

The logo for CAMH (Centre for Addiction and Mental Health) consists of the lowercase letters "camh" in a bold, sans-serif font.Immigrant and Refugee Mental Health Project

Enhance your knowledge, develop your skills and build your network

Trauma and learning: Creating inclusive classrooms, October 23, 2018

Webinar Registration Form

October 23rd, 2018: 1:30-2:30 PM EST: Trauma and learning: Creating inclusive classrooms.

Presenter: Diana Jeffries, Education and Training Manager, Pacific Immigrant Resources Society.

Biography: Diana Jeffries specializes in working with refugees and multi-barrier learners and has been involved in the EAL sector for the past 15 years. She worked for ISS of BC in the Language Instruction for Newcomers to Canada, Moving Ahead Programs with refugee youth, plus various other youth and women's programs in the Lower Mainland.

Diana facilitates numerous workshops for educators to learn how to work better with those who have experienced trauma. She has also designed and facilitated workshops on implementing community and art based learning, and self care. Diana has written curriculum and resource guides for a number of non profit community organizations and has been a consultant for BC Women's Hospital's Sexual Assault Services Program. Currently Diana is the Training Manager at Pacific Immigrant Resources Society where she researches, writes, and facilitates workshops on trauma informed practices for the settlement sector.

* 1. Registration

Please provide the following information: