Information for Initial Review for SINP

REVIEW IS NOT A PROMISE OF LICENSURE

In the province of Saskatchewan, one may not practice as a psychologist, use the title “psychologist” or represent oneself as a psychologist, without licensure with the Saskatchewan College of Psychologists (SCP).

Documents to be submitted as part of the Application Initial Review are listed below. All documentation MUST be sent via mail. Once all documents and payment are received, the process for review will take at least 6-8 weeks until you are notified with a decision.

1. An “Application Form for SINP Review”.
2. Review fee (non-refundable) of $250.00 must be submitted with all application documents. (payable by Visa, MC, CDN Money Order).
3. Academic credential evaluated by one of the following credentialing organizations: WES, IQAS, ICES or CES. The evaluation MUST show the credential to be equivalent to a Masters or Doctoral degree in Psychology that one could earn at a recognized Canadian institution. The evaluation MUST be sent directly to the College by the credentialing organization.
4. Documented evidence of practical experience as part of the academic program i.e. practicum and / or internship.
5. Documented evidence of training in professional ethics as part of the academic program.
6. Official transcripts of all post-secondary degrees. Transcripts must clearly state a minimum of a Master’s degree in Psychology acceptable to SCP and must show the degree has been granted.
7. You MUST include course syllabi for all courses you wish to have considered for the Foundational Knowledge requirements. (See application form for SINP review).
8. A verified/notarized* copy of your Birth Certificate. If you have changed your name, please provide verified copies of all documents (e.g. Marriage Certificate, Certificate of Change of Name, divorce decree).
9. A “Consent for Release of Information” form.
10. A “Consent for Release of Information to Gov’t of Sask” form.
11. A criminal record check, including vulnerable sector screening. Original MUST be sent.
12. A “Declared Areas of Competence and Interventions” form.
13. Current curriculum vitae. (Professional Resume)
14. An “Applicant’s Self-Report of MRA Competencies” form.
15. Three references provided on the “MRA Competency Reference Form”. Two references must be from Psychologists, the third can be from another licensed professional who knows of your competence and work as a psychologist. (These MUST be sent directly from the references to SCP.)
16. Copies of letters from Saskatchewan Immigration identifying deadlines to be met.

*If accepted for Immigration, you may make application to the College for licensure. There will be additional requirements that must be met to be eligible for a practice license. ****

* “verified means” a photocopy signed by a chiropractor, judge, magistrate, police officer, lawyer, mayor, physician or dentist, minister, notary public, optometrist, senior administrator in a regional college, technical institute or university, pharmacist, postmaster, principal of a school, accountant, engineer, signing officer or a bank, a veterinarian who can attest that “this is a true copy of the original document”.
