14

15 1.0 Discussion was held on continuing education requirements for 2022. Council determined
16 that all required continuing education credits could be self-directed for this practise year
17 in recognition of the ongoing disruption caused by the covid19 pandemic.

18

19 2.0 Council discussed terms of reference for the recently formed Competency Declaration
20 Review Ad Hoc Committee.

22 3.0 Council passed a motion for the MacGregor discipline decision to be posted to the 23 website.

25 4.0 Changes in the Authorized Practise Endorsement (APE) application process for provisional
26 members were reviewed and approved. Moving the APE application process to be part of 27 the initial application for provisional registration would allow the Registration Committee
28 to be able to confirm that the applicant has met the requirements for APE eligibility if 29 they intend to practise in and be examined for diagnostic competency.
