

Member-at-Large Nominee: Marissa Landry-Dixon M.Ed., R. Psych.

Education:

- 2018 Master of Education (Ed Psych), Route 2: Counselling University of Regina (U of R)
- 2012 Adult Continuing Education & Training Certificate U of R
- 1996 Bachelor of Social Work U of R

Employment:

- Counsellor with Saskatchewan Polytechnic (2013- present).
- As a graduate student, Marissa was hired as a research assistant for the nato' we ho win (a Cree word, which can be translated as “the art of self-healing”) program that ran from 2016-2021.
- Marissa also held positions with: Ministry of Social Services, Transition House, CNIB, and Thundercreek Rehabilitation.

Professional & Committee Involvement:

- Saskatchewan Polytechnic SPFA Education Awards Committee founding member (developing the program from the ground up). Currently Chair of the committee.
- Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association (CCPA) member and registered Canadian Certified Counsellor (CCC).
- Joined CCPA as a graduate student. Served in a voluntary position as a U of R CCPA student representative. As a CCPA/CCC assisted with the student awards program.
- Past Registered Social Worker in good standing with Saskatchewan Association of Social Workers (SASW) for 19 years.
- SASW Moose Jaw Branch founding member, serving a term as branch treasurer.
- Committee member for the SASW Student Awards Committee for 5+ years.

Marissa has nearly 30 years of contribution in committee, volunteer, and/or research work to serve various populations, ideals, and to grow as a professional. In 2022, Marissa successfully completed the requirements to be a full practicing Registered Psychologist with SKCP. She would be pleased to serve in the role as Member-at-Large with the SKCP to work alongside fellow members to grow the profession, educate, and protect the public. Marissa is an ethical and conscientious professional and life-long learner to support best practices. These are just a few reasons I endorse Marissa for Member-at- Large.
